

Internship Certification Letter

We, here with, certify that the following student:

Name : Sahrul Maulidi
NIM : 4337855201220026
University : Horizon University Indonesia

Hereby declare that the student has carried out an internship program as a Web Developer in the Data and Information Section, from July 21, 2025 to November 21, 2025. During the internship period, students are responsible for the following tasks:

1. CilotoTrack Web Application Development

Developing and improving features and designs on the CilotoTrack web application that is directly connected to hosting. Features and designs were created based on the needs of BBPK Ciloto through online discussions and coordination using Zoom. The technologies used include Laravel 11 framework, React JS, MySQL Database, Tailwind CSS, and HTML.

2. System Testing and Validation

Design and implement system tests to ensure application performance is stable, secure, and up to standard. Assess the effectiveness and user experience of application features.

3. Project Documentation Maintenance

Develop structured technical documentation, covering development steps, testing, and hosting configuration. Make regular project progress reports to stakeholders, including identification of potential obstacles.

4. Team Collaboration and Goal Alignment

Work closely with other development teams, the Head of the Health Training Center, and relevant stakeholders to ensure project outcomes are in line with organizational targets.

The students have successfully completed the internship program with excellence, making significant positive contributions to BBPK Ciloto. We would like to thank the students for their dedication and hard work throughout the program and wish them success in their future careers.
